

Information on Limited Express Fares and Related Matters

■ Limited Express Tickets

- Limited express fares may be limited express reserved seat fares or limited express non-reserved seat fares depending upon the type of seat taken. Limited express reserved seat fares vary by the season. Depending on the day of travel, they are categorized as regular-season periods, high-season periods, or low-season periods, and the prices are different. In the case of limited express non-reserved seat fares, or when using a Green car or sleeper car, the limited express fare will be 520 yen less than the reserved limited express fare in the regular season.
- Limited express fares for children are half the price of the adult fare (rounding off fractional amounts).
- Limited express reserved seat tickets are valid only in the assigned carriage.
Limited express non-reserved seat tickets are valid for one days for one use only per train.
- Limited Express Reserved Seat Fares by Season
When using ordinary car reserved seats on limited express trains in the high-season periods, a 200 yen discount is applied to the regular season limited express reserved seat fare. In the busy season, a 200 yen surcharge is applied to the regular season limited express reserved seat fare.
 - Low-season periods
Monday to Thursday during the periods of January 16 to the end of February, June, September, and November 1 to December 20 (excluding public holidays, days preceding public holidays, and alternative holidays).
 - High-season periods
March 21 to April 5, April 28 to May 6, July 21 to August 31, December 25 to January 10
 - Regular-season periods
Days other than those designated as low-season or high-season periods.

■ Transfer Discounts

<Discount for Transfer Between Shinkansen and Conventional Line>

- When transferring between Shinkansen and limited express trains on conventional lines at Okayama Station, Sakaide Station, or Takamatsu Station, the limited express fare on the conventional line will be reduced by half. The limited express fare portion will also be reduced by half in the case of limited express Green car passage. Fares are rounded down to the nearest 10 yen.
 - * The discount applies to transfers from Shinkansen to conventional lines that occur on the same day as the Shinkansen travel, and to transfers from conventional lines to Shinkansen that occur on the same day as the conventional line travel or on the following day.
- The discount applies only when the limited express and other such tickets for connecting trains in both directions are purchased at the same time and before departure. The discount will not be applied after the passenger has boarded the train.
- When transfers are made from a conventional limited express or express train to a Shinkansen train and then from it to another conventional limited express or express train, the discount will be applied to whichever of the conventional line fares is highest.

<Discount for Transfer Between Sunrise Seto Train and Conventional Line>

- When a transfer between the Sunrise Seto limited express sleeper and a limited express train in the JR Shikoku area is made at Sakaide Station or Takamatsu Station on the day the passenger boards the first train taken, or on the following day, then the limited express fare and reserved seat fare for the portion of travel within the JR Shikoku area will be reduced by half.

■ Sleeper Car Tickets

- Sleeper car fares are the same for adults and children.
- The limited express fare for a sleeper car on a limited express train will be subject to a discount of 520 yen from the limited express reserved seat fare in the regular season. When taking a sleeper car (including a private compartment) on a limited express train, the limited express ticket and sleeper car ticket should be purchased together.
- Two adults may not use the same sleeper berth, even in alternation, but a single berth may be used by one adult and one child together or by two children together.
